Michael: Sandy, look at the man on TV. Why is he wearing a women's dress?

Elsa: Hey, you may take a look again more carefully. That's not a man. She is one of the most popular super models in France. Her name is Constance Rowe.

Michael: Then why does she have a big beard like a man?

Elsa: In fact, she has a medical condition, and that causes hair to grow on her face. She tried many ways to fix the problem, but nothing worked. The hair just kept growing back on her face. In the beginning, she hated her beard. Many people laughed at her. But now, she is learning to love the hair on her face and always tells herself she is special, not weird.

Michael: I see. Models like her are not that common, right?

Elsa: She might not be one of those "common" models, but I like her very much. She lives her life to the full. Though many people think she's strange and not pretty or thin enough to be a model, she still doesn't give up and tries her best to do everything. Now she wants to let the world know women come in different looks and sizes, and they are all beautiful. Never let others define you.

Michael: You can say that again. And we shouldn't hold such a gender stereotype.

Do you know about the hula dance from Hawaii? When people hear hula dance", they picture its dancer as a woman in a grass skirt. But can't men do hula? Of course they can. In the past, it was very important for Hawaiian men to do the hula well. A man had to learn to be a good hula dancer, and then he could have a chance to be a good fighter. At that time, all the Hawaiian men wanted to be the best fighter, so they did a lot of training to become fast and strong.

Today, Hawaiian men still dance the hula, but they don't go to the gym or stay inside the house for training. They do the same things as Hawaiian men did in the past. They love to swim in the sea and run along the beach with heavy rocks. They even climb to the top of coconut trees. Today's male hula dancers don't want to fight. They just want to remember the wise ways of their grandfathers and great-grandfathers' lives. By doing hula, men can know more about Hawaiian history. Hula dance is sure the best way to improve their bodies and their minds.
